

AWARD WINNERS

L-R: Christina, Felix, Jack, Chastity.

Congratulations to the Students of the Week! Well done to Chastity in K/1 for her excellent work in InitialLit, to Christina in 2/3/4 for persistence and effort in mathematics, and to Jack for consistently demonstrating a great work ethic. Well done to Felix for receiving the Captains' Award for excellent playground behaviour and being a great sport.

SWIMMING

Last Friday a team of students travelled to Moree to represent St Joseph's at the Diocesan Swimming Carnival. The team performed very well.

Congratulations to both Junior and Senior Relay teams for placing in their races. The Senior Relay team are now competing at Polding in Sydney on 25 March. Miss Shani Marshall will be attending Polding too, as one of the Managers for the Armidale Diocese team.

The Junior Relay team, Becky, Oliver, Zara and Chace.

Senior Relay report

On your marks, get set, go: the race started and the day began.

Alessia's first race was 50 meters freestyle. She came first in her heat and 16th overall. Next, Alessia had 50 meters backstroke and came second in her heat and 20th overall.

Indigo dived into the pool as the gun went off. Her first race was the 50 meters freestyle. She came third in her heat and 29th overall.

Beep as the starter gun went off. Jock dove into the pool and swam 50 meters freestyle, giving it his all. He came second in the heat and twenty-fifth over-all. Next, Jock swam in backstroke and came second last and twenty-third over-all.

Henry dived into the pool as the gun went off. The first race he had was the 50 meters freestyle and he gave it his best. Henry got third in my heat and got twenty-fifth overall.

For the relay Indigo went first and gave it a red hot go, Jock went second and tried his hardest. Henry went third and gave it his all, and Alessia went last and brought us home with a strong finish. We came second against the junior relay and Boggabri. Our junior relay came third against came second and Boggabri came first.

By Indigo, Alessia, Jock, & Henry.

The Senior Relay team, Indi, Jock, Henry and Alessia.

CREATIVE ARTS

Year 5/6 students have made this wonderful collaborative artwork. Which is on display on the classroom wall. Students reviewed some of the works of Picasso and each made their own image using abstract shapes. They agreed to make a sheep together as it is the theme of this year's Barraba Show. There is still an artwork space as the children wait for a classmate to return from leave.
