About O'Connor Catholic College Armidale

O'Connor Catholic College is a co-educational high school, from Years 7-12 which began in 1975 with the amalgamation of two of Armidale's longest established schools; St Ursula's College and De La Salle College. With a population of around 550 students, O'Connor is committed to the vision of being a faith filled community working collaboratively to enhance the learning for all, resulting in students who are creative, confident and informed people ready to make a difference in our world.

The staff at O'Connor are committed to creating learning opportunities for everyone. At O'Connor, learning encompasses faith learning which is integral to the mission as a Catholic school, academic learning so that every student achieves the best learning outcomes and wellbeing and resilience skills which are important for a healthy, balanced life.

O'Connor is located in Armidale, situated halfway between Sydney and Brisbane and only two hours from the coast. Armidale is a major city with a population of 24,500 people, which rests high on the Northern Tablelands and is known for its four distinct seasons.

The Armidale region boasts spectacular gorges, world-heritage national parks, cool-climate vineyards and waterfalls including the Wollomombi Falls which are one of the highest in Australia. It is an ideal area for those who enjoy outdoor adventures including canyoning, mountain climbing, biking, bird watching or trout fishing. Galleries, museums, fine foods and a vibrant event calendar including festivals, music, theatre, markets, book fairs and major sporting events guarantee an experience suitable for all ages. Armidale is rich in heritage with grand cathedrals, colonial buildings and is home to the University of New England.
