

Catholic Life, Mission and Religious Education Leader

- Catholic Education, Armidale, NSW
- Newly created leadership role
- Commence by Jan. 2023

The Catholic Schools Office (CSO) Diocese of Armidale serves 24 systemic schools around the New England and North West region of NSW. There are approximately 1,000 employees in teaching and non-teaching roles and the CSO aids schools in building a catholic professional learning community for almost 6,000 students across the Diocese.

Reporting to the Director, the Catholic Life, Mission and Religious Education Leader is a newly created role to provide leadership and service to further develop the Catholic identity of our schools and strengthen parish/school relationships.

Armidale is a city in the Northern Tablelands of NSW. With an estimated population of 25,000 it is the administrative centre for the Northern Tablelands region.
