About St Joseph's Barraba

St Joseph's Barraba is a vibrant and progressive school, providing a high quality Catholic Education to students in the local area.

Our school motto is "In All Things Charity" and it is this founding statement that is at the heart of everything we do as a school community. St Joseph's enjoys the fervent support of the school, parish and local community. This strong sense of community is fostered within the students who are both encouraged and supported in their participation in local community events and ceremonies.

St Joseph's Barraba has been offering a high quality education to the children of Barraba for over 100 years. St Joseph's was established in 1910 by Father Collender and the Sisters of St Joseph. The Sisters of St Joseph's provided a quality education from 1910 until they withdrew from the Parish at the end of 1987. In 1988 the first lay principal was appointed and since then the school has been staffed completely by lay principals and teachers.

St Joseph's is in St John's Parish Barraba and the student body is made up of students from the township of Barraba and local farming areas.

Barraba is a rural service centre on the Manilla River with the Nandewar Ranges to the west, the Horton Valley to the north-west, and undulating slopes and tablelands to the south-east and north. The district is mainly a cropping area together with sheep and cattle grazing. The main appeal of the area lies in its long history as a mining town and the attractive and dramatic national parks which surround it.

Barraba is located 476 km north of Sydney and 90 km north of Tamworth on the Fossickers Way. It is 500 m above sea-level.

So many town names with Aboriginal origins seem to be either "a meeting place" or something connected with meetings and campsites. It is probable that Barraba means "a camp by the river" in the language of the local Aborigines but no one is sure. It could also mean "place of the yellow-jacket trees".
