About St Joseph's Tenterfield

Established in 1880 by the Sisters of St Joseph, St Joseph's School is a quality primary school with 127 students, located in Tenterfield in the New England Region of NSW. The school has large spacious grounds, excellent new classrooms and a very experienced, committed staff.

St Joseph's prides itself on the high standard of education using Quality Teaching strategies, where every child is challenged and valued for their unique gifts. The teachers provide a positive and secure learning environment. One of the defining features of the school is the strong relationship between family, school, parish and the wider community.

An historic town in the rolling New England region, Tenterfield is home to elegant wineries and superb wilderness. Known as the 'birthplace of Australia', this is the town where Sir Henry Parkes made his famous 1889 speech calling for Australia's federation.

Tenterfield is located at the northern end of the New England region, at the intersection of the New England and Bruxner Highways. Tenterfield is three hours from Brisbane, Queensland (276 km), three hours from Byron Bay, New South Wales (205 km), two hours from Armidale, New South Wales (188 km) and eight hours from Sydney (663 km).

The town is on the north-western stretch of the Northern Tablelands plateau, a spur of the Great Dividing Range, and is nestled in a valley beneath Mount Mackenzie (1,287m elevation), one of the highest points along the Northern Tablelands.
