About St Joseph's Primary School Uralla

St Joseph's Catholic Primary School is a small rural Catholic systemic co-educational school located in Uralla. St Joseph's was established by the Sisters of Saint Joseph in 1886. In that year, Mother Mary MacKillop (Saint Mary of the Cross) paid a visit to the school. Mother Mary wrote in her diary, on 29 April 1896, that she 'was very pleased with the school and children'.

St Joseph's is a vibrant Christ centred community well supported by the parish and parent body. The Gospel values, including faith, respect and service, guide and permeate all learning and behaviour. A high standard of education is provided for the students, strengthened by the teaching and example of Catholic faith and tradition. Students are encouraged to develop to their full potential in an inclusive and supportive climate of love, respect and acceptance.

Student engagement is the key to learning. Dedicated and enthusiastic teachers strive to ensure that student learning is both meaningful and inspiring. Children are exposed to an array of activities that encourages them to extend themselves in all Key Learning Areas of the curriculum. They develop values, skills and knowledge within an engaging and inspiring environment. Classrooms at St Joseph's are large, well resourced, flexible learning spaces that allow for 21st century learning to take place. Students have access to chrome books, iPads and Promethean boards to further support learning, allowing them to keep up to date with the ever changing world of technology.
