About St Joseph's Primary School Wee Waa

St Joseph's Primary School is a co-educational Catholic primary school from K-6 which provides quality education for 120 students. The school's vision is "To be a Beacon of Learning, Faith, and Community for all children of the Wee Waa district" and therefore is a school community that cares for the individual needs of students and families.

Wee Waa is a dynamic rural community situated in the rich agricultural heartland of the lower Namoi Valley in North West NSW, approximately 40 kilometers west of Narrabri. With a population fluctuating around 2,080 people, Wee Waa is known as Australia's Cotton Capital and boasts a welcoming, close-knit, and supportive community. Being the oldest town in the Namoi

Valley it features many historic sites and points of interest such as museums, War Memorial, lagoon and only a short distance to travel to other villages in the region such as Burren Junction and Pilliga. Wee Waa is known to be a strong sports-oriented town that has an excellent golf course, swimming pool, indoor multi-purpose courts and numerous walking tracks around the town.
